by Lea (@kisskiss.rhinestones)

ABOUT THE PATTERN

The Elli Bonnet is a quick little project that will keep you warm and looking super cute. It uses under 25g of lace weight mohair held double which makes it perfect for using up your larger scraps or trying out a new yarn. This project is beginner friendly but you will need to be able to do a knit stitch, purl stitch, work i-cord, increase, and decrease. It is worked flat in 1x1 rib.

Thank you for purchasing the Elli Bonnet pattern! If you make your own, please tag me (@kisskiss.rhinestones) and #ellibonnet on instagram so I can see your projects <3 If you're having trouble with the pattern, you are welcome to message me on there too. Happy knitting!
