Construction

Cherry Cardigan is knitted from the top down. At first, make the neckline and raglan yoke. After separating the sleeves and the body, continue to work the body in back and forth and work the sleeves in the round. Next, pick up the stitches from the neckline and work the neck band. If you want a different total length of the garment than what is presented, the placements of the buttonholes for the middle of body must be changed. And you can also sew buttonholes after finishing. Both tutorial videos are included.
