Sample 1, Size S

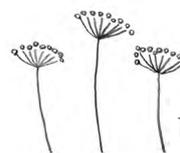

Sample 2, Size XL

I have got my inspiration from one of lovely outfits \(you will jump to Instagram\) by Eiko Kadono, Japanese child book author of «Kiki's Delivery Service». She wears a dress with fine plaid pattern in black and white, and over it a vivid green cardigan. Beginning with this image, I have knitted a sweater with abstract color yoke pattern which has a kind of traditional Icelandic style. During the knitting, stranded color pattern has changed and now it became more like a twinkle pattern.

You can knit this sweater in 2 or 3 colors. By changing colors of dots in each round, you can use more colors for your project. There are drawings on page 5 and 14 for you to plan your color combination with colored pencil or painting app. You can also use fluffy yarn like mohair or boucle yarn as a contrasting texture. I hope you have fun by finding your favorite combo and enjoy knitting!

I have knitted a swatch with 4 different type of yarn. For the Sample 3, I have used GENMOU, the second yarn from the top, as a contrasting color.

MC: Airy Wool Alpaca (color 10: navy + ivory) by Daruma yarn

CC: From the top, Airy Wool Alpaca (color 1: ivory), GENMOU (color 1: ivory), Wool Mohair (color 1: ivory) and LOOP (color 1: ivory) by Daruma yarn
