

Hello, my dear friend!

Hello, my soul-mate!

I'm very thankful to you for choosing my toys and my pattern.

I've done a great job so that you would be able to create a similar toy or even a better one, is only a pattern to help you.

Let your fantasy fly and do as your own mind tells you. It's my advice to you!

I spent not only my time and work to create this pattern, but I also put a part of my heart and soul into it.

I do hope and wish that your work to create the toy should bring you great pleasure and joy.

Lots of thanks.

Love. @grizly_mama

LEGEND

ch-chain

ss (sl st)-Slip stitch

sc-single crochet

mr- magic ring

dc- double crochet

hdc- half double crochet

inc- increase

dec - decrease

At the end of each row in brackets the number of chains in the row is indicated.

MATERIALS

You'll need thread of two colors - dark gray and white. I use Gazzal Baby Cotton. And here comes my second piece of advice - never economize on threads if you want a nice and stylish toy. Never choose cheap acrylic. All your efforts and time will be lost as acrylic is able to kill all your efforts.

It's up to you to choose the colors for stripes on the top and the color of the skirt.

My top has black and white stripes. Be sure to have a little pink cotton for cheeks. We'll also need eyes (I use plastic ones on screw fastening). You can use black beads, too. You'll also need scissors, a needle with a big eye and filler (holofiber) which should also be of high quality.

Decreases must be on both sides. Fold in two and crochet. Leave some yarn tail to sew the ears to the head.

CHEEKS (2 details)

1. 7 sc in magic ring, slip stitch. (leave some yarn tail for sewing up).

I start sewing up parts with the head. As a rule I first crochet all parts of the head, sew up the ears between the 7-th and 8-th row from the place I finished crocheting the head, folding the ear in half at the base.

Sew up the cheeks, embroider the eyebrows and the nose. When the head is ready, it's easier to decide whether the toy will be a he-hare or a she-hare. In this case it will be a she-hare though I thought all through the work that I was making a he-hare.

So the head is ready and we go to crocheting the body.

BODY

We start crochet the body with white yarn and then change the color to the black (each color is changed after two rows 2*2).

LEGS (2 details)

We start crochet with white yarn.

1. 6 sc in magic ring

2. 6 inc (12)

Crochet 7 rows of 12 chains, then change to the gray color.

Then crochet 25 rows of 12 sc with the gray yarn .Stuff if it's necessary.

35. dec 4sc dec fold in half and crochet together 4sc.

The second leg is crochet in the same way leaving some yarn tail for sewing the parts.

ARMS (2 details)

We start crochet with gray yarn.

1. 6 sc in magic ring

2. (1 sc, inc)*3 (9)

9 rows of 9 sc

Change the yarn to white and crochet 12 rows of 9 sc, changing the black and white yarn after each 2 rows (2*2). Fold the part side to side and crochet together. Leave some yarn tail for sewing up. I don't fill the arms.

TAIL

1. 6 sc in magic ring

2. 6 inc (12)

3. (1 sc, dec)*3 (9)

Fasten off. and leave some yarn tail for sewing up the parts.

The only thing left is to sew the parts together and dress the hare.

8 @grizly_mama

Sew the arms into the third row from the top approximately 9 sc apart from each other.

The legs are sewn as you like. Use pins to find the right place for the leg, after that you sew up the tail. To make sure we've made a she-hare, we need a simple skirt. I remind you that I planned a pattern how to make a he-hare, but recently I bought a nice piece of cotton fabric. I liked the color so much that I changed my mind in favor to a she-hare.

SKIRT

We'll need a piece of fabric approx.40 *12 cm.

I don't use a pattern for cutting the skirt. I just stitch two edges together using a sewing machine, put in elastic band for clothing at the waist. The bottom of the skirt may be stitched or left as it is depending on the fabric quality.

The skirt is ready. You see it is quite easy to make. Now it's up to you to decide how to decorate the toy.

You can use flowers on the head, a nice collar crochet, knitted or sewn, a ribbon, a piece of lace.

The toy is ready! I hope you enjoyed making it. Thanks.
