*Rib Lace
Raglan*

Rib Lace Raglan is a minimal and beautiful raglan sweater. Columns of knit stitches are broken up by columns of simple lace. The lace pattern is only two stitches (yarn over and knit 2 together) and has a two-row repeat, so it is quickly memorized and easy to knit. Rib Lace Raglan uses an all over lace texture while still being very full coverage. Enjoy knitting and wearing this sweater in any season. ## GAUGE 17sts x 30 rows = 4" x 4" in lace pattern, blocked, knit with US 5 (3.75mm) needles or any needle size that you can achieve gauge with.

Pattern is knit in the round past the neck shaping; for the most accurate gauge swatch you should swatch in the round. There's an easy way to do this where you don't actually join in the round. Instead, you swatch on a circular needle, and after every row, slide all stitches back to the other needle and float the working yarn across the back, leaving enough slack that you can lay the swatch flat. If this doesn't make sense to you, search "how to swatch in the round" on YouTube and you will find several tutorial videos.

To knit a gauge swatch:

CO 29 sts.    29 sts with 4 mm

Row 1 (RS): k2, *k3, yo, k2tog, repeat from * until 2 sts remain, k2. Slide all sts back to other needle and float working yarn across the back.

Row 2(RS): p2, *k3, k2tog, yo, repeat from * until 2 sts remain, p2. Slide all sts back to other needle and float working yarn across the back.

Repeat rows 1 and 2 for a few more than 30 rows, wet block, and measure for gauge. If you leave enough slack in the working yarn behind the swatch, then there's no need to cut the floats. That way if you are running out of yarn to knit your sweater, then you can unravel your swatch.

NEEDLES AND NOTIONS

- US 5 (3.75mm) circular knitting needles, or any size that gets gauge.
- US 3 (3.25mm) circular knitting needles, or any size that gets good tension for icord bind off.
- 8 ring stitch markers, 1 of which should be unique to mark the beginning of round.
- Darning needle for weaving in ends.
- Locking stitch marker for row counting.

Turn work to RS, using a cable cast on, CO 9(9, 14, 19, 19) (19, 24, 24, 29) sts. Cut yarn. Looking at the RS, the stitches you just cast on are on your left needle, slip all stitches from the right needle to the left needle until you reach the first stitch marker. You should have slipped 14 sts. This will now be your beginning of round, choose a unique stitch marker for this position.

Work from ball end of your yarn as you start Round 1 below. Your work will be properly joined in the round in the first section of Round 1. Be sure that your work is not twisted before joining in the round.

REMAINDER OF BODY

In the following round, you will place the sleeve stitches on stitch holders, spare needles/cables, or waste yarn. The back raglan seams will join the body, and the front raglan seams will join the sleeves.

Body Set Up Round: yo, k2tog, [k3, yo, k2tog] to marker, rm, slip 3 raglan seam sts to stitch holder, rm, slip all sleeve sts to same holder, rm, turn work to WS, using a Cable Cast On, CO 5(10, 5, 10, 5) (5, 10, 5, 10) sts across underarm, turn work to RS, k3, rm, yo, k2tog, [k3, yo, k2tog] to marker, rm, k3, rm, slip all sleeve sts to stitch holder, rm, slip 3 raglan seam sts to stitch holder, turn work to WS, CO 5(10, 5, 10, 5) (5, 10, 5, 10) sts, turn work to RS, sm.

Round 1: [k2tog, yo, k3] to end of round.

Round 2: [yo, k2tog, k3] to end of round.

Repeat rounds 1-2 until body measures about 4.75(6.5, 5.75, 5.75, 6.25) (5.5, 6.5, 5.75, 6.5)'' or 12 (16.5, 14.5, 14.5, 16)(14, 16.5, 14.5, 16.5) cm from the underarm, about 37(50, 44, 44, 48) (42, 50, 44, 50) rounds.

Try on before binding off, to lengthen, continue knitting in pattern.

When sweater is at desired length, BO in knit, cut yarn. When binding off you need to keep your tension just right so that it's not too loose for the edge of the fabric, but also not overly tight where it cinches in the sweater. If the tension is just right, the fabric will not curl. Alternatively, you can do a 2 stitch icord bind off. (see the end of the Long Sleeve Modification section for details on that technique)

SLEEVES

Try on your sweater before you begin to get an idea of how long you want to knit your sleeves. Most sizes will already sit at or near a good short sleeve length on most bodies. You still have to knit at least two rounds so that the sleeve is properly joined in the round and the underarm is tidy. I suggest putting a locking stitch marker on any stitch on the first round to help you keep track of how many rows you knit so you can do the same for your second sleeve.

The right sleeve and left sleeve are slightly different. Remember the front of the sweater has the raglan seams going to the sleeves, and the back of the sweater has the raglan seams going to the body.

Right Sleeve

Transfer sleeve stitches (and raglan seam stitches) from holder to needles short enough to knit in the round or long enough to do magic loop.

Place marker, pick up and knit 5(10, 5, 10, 5) (5, 10, 5, 10) sts across the cable cast on stitches at the underarm of sweater body.

Round 1: [yo, k2tog, k3] to end of round

Round 2: [k2tog, yo, k3] to end of round.

Repeat Rounds 1-2 until sleeve is at desired length. For short sleeves, bind off in knit. Cut yarn. Alternatively, you can do a 2 stitch icord bind off. (see the end of the Long Sleeve Modification section for details on that technique)

Left Sleeve

Follow the right sleeve instructions until you reach round 1, then continue below.

Round 1: [k3, yo, k2tog] to end of round.

Round 2: [k3, k2tog, yo] to end of round.

Repeat Rounds 1-2 until sleeve is at desired length. For short sleeves, bind off in knit. Cut yarn.

Long Sleeve Modification

This sweater is graded primarily to be knit as a short sleeve garment but can easily be modified to be a long sleeve sweater.

Long sleeves are knit without shaping, smaller sizes will have a more fitted look, and larger sizes will have more of a balloon sleeve shape.

Continue repeating Rounds 1-2 until sleeve is wrist length. Arm length varies highly across body types and is much more closely correlated to height rather than chest circumference, but you will probably need to knit somewhere between 13-17 inches to reach a full-length sleeve. Try on as you go.

When sleeve is at desired length, knit one or two decrease rounds until sleeve is about 38 stitches, the appearance of the finished sleeve really won't be affected by how perfectly these decreases are spaced out. Sizes XS through L can be decreased down to 38 sts in one round using k2togs and knit stitches. Sizes XL through 5XL k2tog every stitch for one round, and then knit a second decrease round knitting k2togs until you reach 38 stitches, after which you can knit to end of round.

I knit a two-stitch Icord bind off for the long sleeve version. Knowing that I tend to knit icord loosely, I sized down to a size 3 needle. Many knitters naturally knit icords tightly and may not need to change needle sizes. Finished cuff should be about 9 inches so that you can fit your hand through. Don't wait until you finish the icord bind off to check if its going to fit. Once you have knit about 12 icord bind off stitches, check that when stretched, your bind off is about 2 inches per 8 stitches, adjust your tension or needle size accordingly.

Icord Bind Off: Using a cable cast on, CO 2 sts. *k1, k2togtbl, sl 2 sts from right needle to left needle. Repeat from * until only 2 sts remain. K2togtbl. Check that you can fit your hand through before cutting yarn. If the fit is sufficient, cut yarn and thread tail through a darning needle and neatly join the beginning and end of your icord bind off.

NECKLINE

Neckline is finished with an applied icord. The icord is very minimal in appearance but gives structure to the neckline so that it doesn't roll. Stitches are picked up and then you work a two stitch icord bind off. You want your icord tension to be such that your neckline sits neatly without rolling, but not overly tight, it should not greatly cinch in the neckline. I used a size US 3 needle because I naturally knit my icords loosely. You may find that you don't need to size down. Check as you go that the tension of your applied icord matches the tension of your lace stitch along the neckline and adjust as needed.

On US 3 needle or any size needed to achieve lovely icord tension, use a long tail cast on and CO 2 sts. Then start at one of the back raglan seams and begin picking up and knitting into every stitch along the neckline. You should have about 80(80, 80, 90, 90) (90, 100, 100, 100) sts total. Prepare to join and work in round.

Bind off: *k1, k2togtbl, sl 2 sts from right needle to left needle. Repeat from * until only 2 sts remain. K2togtbl. Check that you can fit your head through before cutting yarn. If the fit is sufficient, cut yarn and thread tail through a darning needle and neatly join the beginning and end of your icord bind off
