Amsterdam Scarf
BY DANA FEHRENBACH

Small, shown in Bronze

Large, shown in Toad You So

This asymmetrical scarf will take out the chill of the day!

Based on the stitch in my Amsterdam Cowl pattern, it comes in two sizes: a petite wrap which makes a perfect little scarf, or a larger size which gives more coverage, like a shawl!

The pattern can be reversible! Once you master the look of the wrap, you will make as many as possible to gift to that special person you love to knit for!

Here are some ways to adapt this pattern:

1. Use a contrast color or a coordinating mohair/silk yarn on Row 6 of the set up and on Row 1 of the main body, then on Row 16 and Row 1 of subsequent repeats. In Final section, use contrast on Rows 1, 8, and 9.

2. In the Final section, on Row 3, bead the center stitch of the three purls. Then, in Row 5 you can place a bead after you have finished the s2kp stitch. The beads should alternate each other and compliment the Final section.
