Capella Shawl

Isabell Kraemer

Soothing garter stitch borders an easy and delicate lace pattern in Capella, a traditional triangle shawl. Silk and wool Tern lends lightweight warmth, drape and shimmer. Repeats can be added or removed to customize the size, or you can go big with Owl or Osprey for a more substantial, sturdy piece.

Notes

1. Shawl is knitted flat, from center of back neck down, beginning with a garter stitch tab. Stitches are increased at each side and on either side of a center spine stitch every RS row. Stitches are worked in lace pattern to center spine, then worked in a reflection of that pattern to end.
2. Wet-blocking is recommended for this piece.
