ELVAN SHAWL

FLORENCE SPURLING STUDIO

Elvan is a side-to-side triangular shawl inspired by the geometric emblems and hushed tones of vintage woven carpets. Staggered intarsia patterns travel the shawl like woven stories, mixed with pools of bobbles that lend an uber-plush feel. Elvan's long tips and shallow depth make for a super-wearable accessory that fits perfectly into a contemporary wardrobe.

The shawl requires a main color for the background, and nine contrast colors for the intarsia motifs. Get creative choosing your palette using mini-skeins or leftovers from your stash.

NOTES

- Triangular shawl is worked side-to-side, starting at one tip and increasing out to the widest point, then decreasing back to the other tip.
- Shaping takes place every 4 rows along the left edge only.
- When following the intarsia charts, use the selected color to knit on right-side rows, and purl on wrong-side rows.
- When changing yarns between color blocks in intarsia knitting, pick up the new yarn from under the old yarn. This ensures the two yarns twist together so that holes do not occur.
- To create a neat and firm join when adding an additional yarn for a new color block in intarsia:
  - Knit to the last stitch in the current color block.
  - Lay the tail of the new yarn for the new color block over the current yarn.
  - Complete the last stitch of the current color block. This locks the new yarn in place.
  - Twist the yarns as normal before knitting the first stitch of the new color block in the new yarn.
- If the intarsia chart requires you to carry the yarn over 3 or more stitches, cut the yarn and re-join it as previously described.
